Four empty musical staves (two treble and two bass clefs) with a 3-measure rest in the final measure of each staff.

Two systems of musical notation with lyrics. The first system includes a treble staff with lyrics and a bass staff with lyrics. The second system includes a treble staff with lyrics and a bass staff with lyrics. The lyrics are in French and include words like "sant", "comme un", "coup", "de", "ton", "ner - re", "Sur", "l' oppres", "seur", "é-pou", "té -". The score includes performance markings such as ff, f, and ff, and dynamic markings like Q, 2, and 2.. There are also "deleted measure" annotations below the lyrics.

System 1:

Treble staff: ff ff

Bass staff: f

System 2:

Treble staff: ff

Bass staff: ff

The image displays a musical score for page 259, featuring eight staves. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and a 9/8 time signature. The score is divided into measures, with some measures marked as 'deleted measure' in red. The notation includes various note values (half notes, quarter notes, eighth notes), rests, and accidentals. The staves are arranged in four pairs, with the first pair of staves (treble and bass) and the last pair of staves (treble and bass) showing the same musical content. The middle two pairs of staves show variations in the notation, with some measures marked as 'deleted measure'.

The image displays a musical score for the vocal parts of 'Les Femmes d'Alger' (O Version) by Maurice Ravel. The score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass) and includes French lyrics. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into two systems, each containing four staves. The lyrics are: 'mort aux fils de Ba al ! mort aux fils de Ba - al ! mort aux fils de Ba - al !'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. There are several annotations in red and black text, including 'deleted measure', 'deleted Note', 'deleted Rest', 'deleted lyric', 'changed note head', and 'deleted measure'. The score is presented in a clean, professional layout with a white background and black text.
